Dear Parents,

March Madness is certainly living up to its name! Once again, we call upon and are truly grateful to have your support and partnership in your child's learning. Once again, we are also called upon to be solution opportunists!

1. For my Morning Extended Students: On Tuesday, we would like to try to start our Google Meet with the rest of the class. We will start with calm time, Prayer, O Canada and then our Math Opener. If all goes well, we will work on our lesson and team up the students (in class and at home) in Break out Rooms.
